Sec. 7404 Persons dealing with trustee

With respect to a third person dealing with a trustee or assisting a trustee in the conduct of a transaction, the existence of a trust power and its proper exercise by the trustee may be assumed without inquiry. The third person is not bound to inquire whether the trustee may act or is properly exercising the power. A third person, without actual knowledge that the trustee is exceeding a trust power or improperly exercising it, is fully protected in dealing with the trustee as if the trustee possessed and properly exercised the power the trustee purports to exercise. A third person is not bound to assure the proper application of trust property paid or delivered to the trustee.

EXHIBIT "A"
Description of Affected Real Estate

City of Trenton, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, described as:

LOT 364, BRETTON PARK SUBDIVISION NO. 3, Town 4 South, Range 10 East, City of Trenton, Wayne County, Michigan as recorded in Liber 78 of Plats, Pages 17 and 18, Wayne County Records.

EXHIBIT "B"

1.1 Revocable Trust. I reserve the right to amend or revoke this Agreement, wholly or partly, by a writing signed by me or on my behalf and delivered to Trustee during my life. However, I cannot change materially the duties or compensation of Trustee without its written approval.

5.1 Powers of Trustee. Subject to 5.1(b), every Trustee may exercise any of the following powers, and any others that are granted by law, without court order:

5.1(a) Supplemental Powers.

(1) Invest in any property, without limit, including purchases and sales by way of short sales, puts, calls, futures, options, straddles, sales against the box, proprietary funds of a related party that is a corporate trustee, and margin.

(2) Borrow money for any purpose from Trustee (including a related party of a corporate trustee) or from others; and mortgage or pledge any trust property, including purchasing securities on margin.

5.1(b) Limitation on Powers.

(1) When more than one person is serving as Trustee and at least one of them is not beneficially interested in the exercise or nonexercise of a power or election, the beneficially interested Trustee shall not participate in the exercise or nonexercise of the power or election.

(2) I am the only person who, when serving as Trustee, may exercise any incident of ownership, alone or with others, over any policy of insurance on the life of the person.

5.5 Certificate of Trust Existence and Authority. In addition to any certificate authorized by law, Trustee may, at any time, record, file, or deliver a Certificate of Trust Existence and Powers ("Certificate") with or to any clerk, register of deeds, transfer agent, or other similar agency or office or to any person dealing with Trustee. The Certificate shall contain a verbatim synopsis of certain provisions of this Agreement. Any purchaser or person dealing with Trustee shall be entitled to rely on the Certificate as a full statement of the provisions of this Agreement that are pertinent to the particular transaction. Machine copies of the executed Certificate shall have the same effect and authority as the executed Certificate.

6.3(a) Governing Law. This Agreement and the trusts shall be construed and regulated and their validity and effect shall be determined by the law of Michigan.
